

SETTING UP YOUR Sony Reader Wi-Fi

Upon opening up your new Sony Reader you will find a guide to get you started. It includes information on how to turn on your Reader, locate and identify different buttons and how to charge it. There are two models of the Sony Reader, the PRS-T1 and the PRS-T2. Information for both devices are on this handout.

Connect to a Wireless Network

PRS-T1

Press the Home button to open the home screen. Tap the arrow (>) on the bottom right corner of the screen to go to the second page of the home screen. Click on Settings and then turn on the Wi-Fi. If it continues to search for a network go to Wi-Fi settings to see which network you are connecting to.

PRS-T2

Press the Home button, tap Applications – Settings – Wireless Network Settings. Put a check in the box beside Wifi.

Setting Up to Borrow From the Public Library

You will need to register your Sony with an ID by going to the Reader Store on the Home page. If you do not have an account you can make one here. Or just sign in.

PRS-T1

Click back to the Home page once you are done. Tap the arrow (>) on the bottom right corner of the screen to go to the second page again. Under Network tap Public Library.

PRS-T2

Go to Applications and then tap Public Library.

Type in Prince Rupert Public Library and hit Search. Select Prince Rupert Public Library. Tap on British Columbia Libraries and you will go to the Library's Digital Catalogue.

There are different options for finding books. You can choose to browse by genre or search for specific authors / titles. It is possible to place holds on items that are currently out by selecting Place a Hold. The Library will then contact you by email once your hold is available.

Advanced Search is a quick way to find available titles in the correct format. You can show only titles with copies available in the Advanced Search by clicking on the Available Now box below the search options.

Checkout and Download

When you have found an item you wish to check out select Add to Cart. You can add up to 5 items to your cart and they will be held for 30 minutes.

Once you have finished selecting titles tap Proceed to Checkout. You will need to enter your Library Card number without spaces.
